

2019 | Cost of International Health Insurance

KEY FINDINGS

A notable number of countries have witnessed increased premiums and rankings

Canada has jumped from being the 3rd most expensive country for individual and family IPMI in 2018, to being the 2nd most costly country in 2019

In 2019, Singapore and Australia were two standout locations that witnessed large jumps in their rankings vis-a-vis 2018.

China's premiums are going through a correction phase after years of increase

A number of insurers in China are adjusting their premiums: some insurers' plan premiums remain the same, while others have even reduced their premiums.

The Americas is a dominant region in the top 20 most expensive countries

15 of the 29

countries featured in the top 20 ranking are located in the Americas

African countries have some of the highest premium inflation rates

There are 21 African countries with 15% or higher premium inflation rates for individual plans, and 10 African countries with 15% or higher premium inflation rates for family plans.

Average Cost of Individual Health Insurance Plans in 2019

RANKING

THE TOP 5 AND BOTTOM 5 Most expensive countries

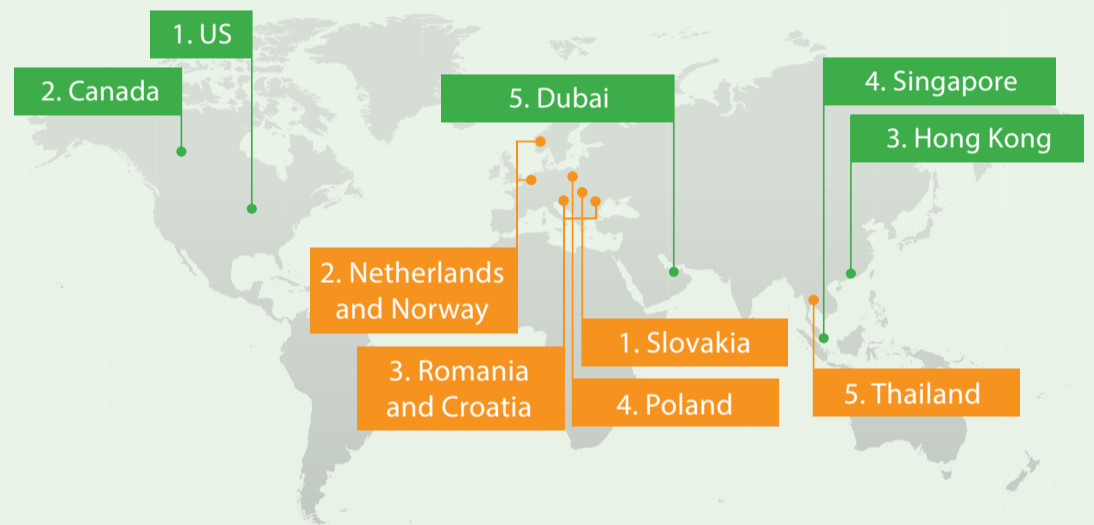

Ranking based on the average price of plans for

Individuals

Ranking based on the average price of plans for

Families

Cost of International Health Insurance Report - 2019

Get access to a wealth of health insurance premium information at your fingertips. Download your copy of Pacific Prime's report from our website.

Hong Kong ■ Shanghai ■ Beijing ■ Singapore
Bangkok ■ Dubai ■ London ■ Los Angeles ■ Mexico City